February 2024

PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE:

February is upon us!

Our January 22nd meeting included a total of 35 people. There were 25 Members and 10 Guests, who came to hear James Dixon discuss the Architecture of Forest Hill. James is a superb speaker and presented us with a fresh look at the architectural details throughout our neighborhood. An expert in different architectural styles found in Forest Hill, James presented us with a new appreciation for the prominent shapes, windows, and materials used, in the houses that we see every day.

There are many people to recognize for their part in making our gathering truly lovely. Thank you to Dena Aslanian-Williams for hosting the meeting, setting everything up, and making all the arrangements to prepare for the afternoon presentation. I would like to thank to the House Committee (Nancy Hagosian and Anna Bolechowski) for arranging the floral arrangements and setting up the tea table. Thank you to the Host of the Tea, Ingeborg McGlynn, and her team, Marcia Elias, Claudia Belshaw, Amy Hartman, and Amy Quirk. They provided delectable tea sandwiches, fruit, cookies, cake, cheese, and lovely goodies. Gratitude as well, to anyone I may have missed, because many people step in and help. It takes many hands to create a fun event, thank you!

We are looking forward to seeing everyone on President's Day!

Ann Rieger-Matthews
